About Rachel

Rachel Hawks provides litigation support to our attorneys in all areas of employment law, tort and contract disputes. Prior to joining our team, Rachel worked in finance as a loan officer in the Jacksonville area. Rachel's motivation and focus have made for a flawless transition from finance to Paralegal at ADB. Rachel is positive that same determination will serve her well as she continues with her legal studies in the future.

Education

Keiser University, A.A., Paralegal Studies
Full Sail University, Undergraduate Studies, Music Business

Outside of the Office

Outside of the office, Rachel spends time with her two children, family, and friends. She enjoys music, hiking, traveling, and reading.
